Corsicana.

IN MEMORIAM.
Corsicana, Texas, May 26, 1919.

On March 1st, 1919, death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Johnson and took from the mother of Mrs. I. H. Johnson. Death has come and cast its shadow of gloom over the family and bore the spirit of Mrs. Carrie E. Sutton to a better world than this.

Mrs. Sutton was loved by all who knew her. She had such a quiet disposition, she was sick a long time, six years, but bore her suffering as none other, but God's children could never murmuring all was done for her that loving hands and skilled physicians could do, but to no avail. There is a broken link in the family circle but loved ones let us remember God sees best at all times and as he had her place prepared, she has been called home. We heartily sympathize with her dear daughter, Nettie, who was so kind, good and loving to her. Both Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Johnson, may God bless them in their home. The remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

We miss thee from our home
Dear Mrs. Carrie E. Sutton,

Maypearl, Texas, May 29, 1919.

Canaan Baptist Church, Rev. Evans was at his post preached a powerful sermon. Sunday School was well attended Sunday.

Rev. B. Richardson went to Penelope to his appointment.
Miss Adline Johnson and Mrs. Williams are on the sick list.

We miss thee from our home
Dear Mrs. Carrie E. Sutton,

We miss thee from thy place
A shadow o'er our life in cast
We miss thy shining face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy found and earnest cast,
Our home is dark without thee
We miss thee everywhere.

Her life was like a flower
That budded in the garden of love
Transplanted to a place in Heaven
To greet her loved ones above.

God help her heart broken children
Nettie as she travels a world of care
Lighten the heavy burden, which
Seems too hard to bear.

Help her to realize, dear Lord
In her grief stricken heart today,
That thou was good in giving
And just in taking away.

How joyful is the thought
That fingers when loved ones
Cross death's sea, that when
Our labors here are ended
With them we'll ever be.

No parting words shall e'er be spoken
In that bright land of flowers
But songs of joy and peace and
Gladness shall ever more be ours.

REBECCA HUNT.
